

May 19, 2019

The Iftar Banquet gathered AAU family in Ramadan

The Al Ain University of Science and Technology family, Al Ain and Abu Dhabi campuses, spent fun times through the Annual Iftar Banquet, organized by the university to strengthen the bonds of communication, cooperation, love and tolerance, and was attended by Dr. Noor El Deen Atatreh, AAU Chancellor, and Prof. Ghaleb El Refae, AAU President, Dr. Amer Qasem, Vice President, Deans, Heads of departments and a number of academic and administrative members.

Dr. Atatreh pointed out the importance of such events in Ramadan, which reflects the keenness to promote social relations between employees within a family atmosphere.

Prof. El Refae, emphasized that organizing social events enhances the communication and familiarity between the employee, encourage them to work hard, and enhance communication among them.

After having the Iftar, the event was overwhelmed with atmosphere of fun and entertainment by offering a range of cultural and entertaining competitions which the employees participated in the spirit of vitality and enthusiasm.

Al Ain University is continuously seeking to organize such events to promote cooperation, love, brotherhood and communication between employees, which reflects positively on their performance.

Press Release Link