

College of Engineering

About the College > Objectives

Objectives

- Providing students with a high level of education that enables them to make successful decisions in various engineering fields.
- Preparing graduates to be able to compete with graduates of other educational institutions in response to the needs of the labor market from engineers and specialists in the fields of technology.
- Improve the professional skills of students.
- Help students comply with business standards and ethics.

View Page